

COMMUNITY NOTES 'Our Young Stars'

Amaras Art Alliance, a not-for-profit organization in Watertown, presented a concert April 27 at First Parish of Watertown. "Our Young Stars" featured 19 performers age 5 to 15 from Watertown and surrounding communities. State Rep. Rachel Kaprielian and Miss Boston Jr. Pre-Teen 2007-2008 Kristina Ayanian were the co-hosts of the program. The children performed classical works by American, European and Armenian composers, including two works composed by one of the children, Aram Galstian.

The proceeds of this event will benefit Children's Hospital in Boston and orphanages in Armenia. Kaprielian and Ayanian handed out awards of "star" trophies to every child on the stage.

Plans are on the way for the next "Our Young Stars" performance in the community. To learn more about this and other Amaras events, visit www.AmarasOnline.com.
