WATERTOWN —

Amaras Art Alliance of Watertown will present their Young Stars Concert featuring over 20 talented young and aspiring musicians on Sunday, May 15 at Atinizian Hall at Holy Cross Armenian Catholic Church, 200 Lexington Street in Belmont at 4:30 pm.

Performers from Watertown include: guitarist Alexander Abrahamyan; pianist Ruben Karapetyan; and pianist Lori Shirinian, and Sonia Ourfalian a pianist and student at the St. Stephens' Armenian School in Watertown. The concert is under the direction of Nouné Karapetian, a piano and voice teacher, and well known soprano from Belmont with many years of professional experience.

The Young Stars concert is a fundraising event to benefit the art programs at the high school in Aregnadem, a village in Armenia that borders Turkey. For more information and tickets go to amarasonline.com; or call 617-733-7162
